WELCOME TO GOTHAM

A MESSAGE FROM OUR ARTIST DIRECTOR

Welcome to the mystic world of Gotham City. Our theatre production of The Batman isn't simply just a play; it's an immersive experience that presents a view into the complexity of the human nature and the eternal battle between what it means to be a good person. I am excited to present a cast not only so capable of the raw emotion to portray these characters but also revealing the ways in which they have not been seen before on the big stage.

A NOTE ON OUR UNIQUE ADAPTATION

"Gotham's Requiem" is not your traditional Batman story. It's played out like a symphony with emphasis on its verses and virtuosity, in the setting of a city that never sleeps. These city streets have a powerful spoken word and the beat of the drums echo the heart of the city, the musical production plays a vital component of the execution of Bruce's detective abilities. Listen closely, and of course watch closely, there are details that would kill if you miss.

OUR SPECIAL THANKS

This journey has been one of great passion dedication and collective effort from our wonderful crew. We would like to extend our heartfelt thank you to every individual who contributed to making our vision into a reality. And to the unsung heroes, the families of our cast and crew who have been exceptional throughout this process with their patience and needed encouragement.

Finally, to you, our beloved audience, whether drawn to the name of the Dark Knight or the art of theatre, we thank you for filling these seats and giving purpose to our performance. Your applause breathes life in the streets of Gotham.
